Attention: Registered Voters of the Sunnyside Voting Precinct
Re: New Voting Location

Dear Voter:

Notice is hereby given that your voting location has been changed from the Sunnyside School because the Greene County Board of Education voted no longer to provide needed maintenance and utilities for this old building. Your new location will be at the Sunnyside Volunteer Fire Department.

The Sunnyside Fire Department voted to permit the residents of the 24th district to use their facility on election days as their new voting location. Currently, the Greene County Maintenance Department is working with the Volunteer Fire Department to make the new location a handicapped accessible polling place. Voting at this new place will begin with the upcoming Greene County Primary Election on May 4, 2010. This new site is located at 200 Carmel Hill just off Sunnyside Loop near the old Sunnyside Store building. Signs to the Volunteer Fire Department are provided in the area.

Special thanks and appreciation go to Mayor Broyles, Melvin Seaton, Russell Kinser, the County Commissioners, and the Sunnyside Volunteer Fire Department for providing the residents of the Sunnyside community with an updated voting place.

Enclosed is your new voter's registration card reflecting the voting location change.

Respectfully,

Donna Burgner
